HEADTEACHER'S THOUGHTS THIS WEEK

Dear Parents/Carers

Welcome back to what promises to be a very exciting half term.

This week our Curriculum Task Group (CTG) have started to plan our whole school theme week, which will take place the last week of this half term. As the theme is 'Exploring children's rights and equality', the school ambassadors for Children's rights, Tom and Logan, also attended the meeting. The CTG have planned many exciting learning opportunities and competitions to explore this very important theme. More information in next week's newsletter which will detail an opportunity for you to learn alongside your child/children.

A reminder that next Friday (10th March) is a celebration of World Book day, where all children can come to school dressed as their favourite book character. It will be a whole day of celebrating literature.

Our new and improved prospectus is now on the school website. Please take a look.

Have a lovely weekend

PTA Updates

Please keep the following dates in your social calendar:

10th March—PTA Quiz . Our brilliant quiz masters promise fun and entertainment and a bit of healthy competition with the teachers!

30th March—Pizza and Prosecco Night.

Come and meet the PTA and see the wonderful work that they do. FREE pizza and prosecco!

NURSERY REQUEST

Nursery are currently developing their garden and outside area and would appreciate any donations of the following:

- Gravel
- Tyres
- Pallets
- Stones
- Offcuts of artificial grass.

Basic Numeracy and Literacy Skills Workshop

It was very disappointing that no parents attended the basic literacy and numeracy skills workshop before the half term break. The maths and literacy leaders spent a great deal of time planning the workshop, so we have posted the PowerPoint onto the school website for parents/carers to look at in their own time.

We are planning a workshop to look at positive relationships and behaviour management and will be in touch shortly with a date for your diary.
